

Title: Animanimus

Year: 1999

Artist: Ted Fullerton

Medium: Bronze; two-part sculpture comprising figure elevated on pole and chair element at sidewalk level

Location: Madison and King Streets
Kitchener, ON

Acquisition Method: Public Art (1%)

This sculpture celebrates Kitchener's traditions of manufacturing, retail, hospitality and community symbolized by the chair. Combining the words Anima and Animus forms the title, a fusion of soul and spirit, hospitality and business.
