

GOLOURNING FUN!

Public works are what make Kitchener run every day. From the roads we drive on, to the water that we drink, as well as the trails and sidewalks we walk on, dedicated public works professionals work hard every day to deliver quality services for our communities. Here is one of the many maintenance vehicles in our fleet that staff use in the community. Get creative and add some colour!

